Objective

My objective as an Artist is to make an impact on my viewers, and let my art resonate with them. I am constantly questioning every idea, and tradition around me to get a further understanding of enlightenment. On my path, I want to provoke an audience in a way that it has an emotional impact. I want to create in such a way, that allows me to have self-exploration into the unknown of the human psyche. Constantly questioning the associations that are imprinted on us but also taught through societal norms since the moment we were born.
